Dear Madam/Sir,

You are cordially invited to join the closing ceremony of the 8th edition of Bangladesh School of Internet Governance, hosted by the Bangladesh School of Internet Governance and Bangladesh Internet Governance Forum (BIGF).

BIGF is the national Internet Governance Forum (IGF) in Bangladesh. Internet Governance Forum (IGF) is an initiative led by the UN to discuss public policy issues related to the Internet. BIGF's mission is to support Bangladesh's political leadership in developing multilateral public policies responsive to digital transformation's political, economic, digital, and social challenges and to ensure that public policies fit in the fourth industrial revolution era.

BIGF focuses on digital policy issues at the top of Bangladesh's agenda and on emerging future trends at country, regional, and global levels. Through a continuous program of live debates bringing together stakeholders and featuring open and inclusive dialogue, BIGF helps create a space for greater understanding and engagement in Bangladesh's digital future that aligns with Smart Bangladesh.

Bangladesh Internet Governance Forum and Bangladesh School of Internet Governance will organize the 8th edition of Bangladesh School of Internet Governance from 25 to 27 April 2024.

H. E. Engr. Md. Mohiuddin Ahmed, Chairman of the Bangladesh Telecommunication Regulatory Commission (BTRC), has kindly consented to attend the closing ceremony as the Chief Guest.

We would appreciate it if could kindly attend the Closing Ceremony of the 8th edition of Bangladesh School of Internet Governance.

We would be honored if you could grace us with your presence at the Closing Ceremony.
